

You didn't want it . . .

but you couldn't say no.
but you felt frozen.
but you were drunk.
but you were unconscious.
but you didn't think you could say no.
but you just wanted to get it over with.
but you were afraid to say no.
but you knew it was safer than fighting it.
but you didn't think you could get away.
but you said no and they did it anyway.
but they said you'd already gone this far.
but they said this is what happens.
but they drugged you.
but they said they loved you.
but they were your boss, coach, mentor.
but they were your partner or your friend.
but they threatened you.
but they outnumbered you.
but they wouldn't let you leave.
but they did it anyway.
